A Spaghetti Tale

Tedd Arnold

1. I visit schools often and talk with children about my job. Once in a while they'll ask personal questions, such as "What's your favorite food?" and "What are your hobbies?"
2. Spaghetti and meatballs is my favorite food. Why? Because it tastes good and because—admit it—spaghetti is funny food.
3. And reading is my favorite hobby. Reading, however, can be dangerous. When you are deeply absorbed in a book, you stop paying attention to what's going on around you. People describe it as being "lost in a book." It's a wonderful feeling, but it can be hazardous.
4. One day, when I was a teenager, I was home alone doing two of my favorite things: I was eating a huge plate of spaghetti and meatballs, and I was reading.
5. At the time, my family had a pet bird—a big white cockatoo named Luke. He was free to leave his perch and fly around inside the house. Luke enjoyed "talking" to people, but he wasn't trained to use real words. His talking often sounded like chuckling.
6. As I was reading and eating, Luke was chuckling away, talking to me, but I wasn't paying attention to him. I was lost in my book.
7. So Luke decided to get closer. He flew from his perch, and before I knew it, he'd landed right on top of my spaghetti and meatballs!
8. I was so surprised—I didn't even have time to think. My reaction was the same as yours would be: I shooed him off my food! This wouldn't have been so bad except for one thing: When Luke had landed on my plate, he had grabbed my spaghetti with both feet. So when Luke took off again, the spaghetti—still tangled in his feet—went flying everywhere.
9. It landed on my shirt. It hit me in the face. Red sauce splattered up the wall and onto the ceiling.
10. As I pulled noodles out of my hair, Luke flew back to his perch, dripping spaghetti sauce all the way. He wasn't hurt, except for his dignity—the sauce in his beautiful white feathers turned him splotchy orange for several weeks.
11. See how funny spaghetti can be? And see how dangerous reading can be? So go ahead and enjoy a good book. But if you like to read while you eat, you'd better keep one eye on your food. And if you find a spy novel at the library with red, greasy spots on two pages near the middle, you'll know that I've read that book, too!
